

York film professor John Greyson and his friend and associate Dr Tarek Loubani have been in an Egyptian jail for nearly six weeks without any charges being laid. They have now entered a second week of a hunger strike. They need our support.

The York community must stand together to demand their immediate release from jail.

YUFA is calling all faculty, student, and staff to join in

A Day of Concern for
John Greyson and Tarek Loubani

Thursday 26 September

Join the Rally at 12:30 p.m.

At 12:30 p.m., a rally will be held in front of Vari Hall. Among the speakers will be President Mamdouh Shoukri

Free John and Tarek

Throughout the day, members of the York community passing through Vari Hall will be handed flyers and postcards urging them to contact Canadian and Egyptian government officials to demand the immediate release of John and Tarek.

Watch a Video by John's Students

At the same time, a video made by John's students will be shown in the Vari rotunda.

Watch One of John's Films

At 3:30 p.m. the Faculty of Environmental Studies will be showing Proteus, a film by John Greyson and Jack Lewis, in HNES, Room 283.

Attached is a poster that you can post on your office door, and copy and distribute to your students.
